

Owen Pugh & Co Ltd recently fitted this JCB JS220 Tracked Excavator with GPS technology for operation on the development of a new technology college in Newcastle. The machine was also fitted with an Engcon Tiltrotator and used primarily for the creation of some very complicated drainage runs the site required.

